

Volunteer Role Description

Role title
Volunteer Assistant Warden (Summer)
Purpose of your role
To assist the warden with a range of maintenance duties on the reserve and around the visitor centre and to assist visitors to Cley.
Type of work you will be involved with
General maintenance including of the footpaths and hides, This will include cutting back vegetation and the use of a brush cutter, litter picking and maintaining the visitor centre garden. You will also respond to visitors' casual enquiries while on the reserve.
Skills and abilities you will be using in your role
Ability to undertake basic maintenance tasks. Ability to use a brush cutter (training will be provided). Ability to work safely and with minimal direct supervision. Ability to work outside in all weathers. Ability to communicate with the public in a courteous manner and to represent NWT.
You will be based at
Cley Marshes Nature Reserve.
Times/days we would like you to be available -this can be flexible
1-2 days per week
Benefits to you
Working at this wonderful location and being part of the team that showcases the reserve to the public. Out of pocket travel expenses Training in reserve maintenance and specifically the use of a Brush cutter. Opportunity to learn more about the North Norfolk Coast and the wildlife on the reserve.
Your supervisor
Bernard Bishop, Reserve Warden.
Notes/special requirements