

Wild in the City

21 May – 5 June

Celebrating our 90th anniversary we've brought our spectacular nature reserves to Norwich!

Discover 10 nature reserves around the city, beautifully photographed by artist Richard Osbourne and accompanied by sounds of nature by Richard Fair.

Find the last one above the doors to The Forum where Norfolk Wildlife Trust has a huge range of activities, art and wildlife experts for families and adults alike.

Photo competition

Eastern Daily Press is running a photo competition this summer with a special section for Norfolk Wildlife Trust all about Norfolk's nature.

Launched in May, there are categories for children and adults, with four sections in total. Pictures will be shortlisted in September. All shortlisted pictures will be printed in the EDP and there will be an exhibition and awards night with prizes in October. For more details and how to enter visit:

<http://nwtru.st/photocomp>

Find our nature reserves in these shop windows:

Cotswold Outdoor
Theatre Street,
NR2 1RG

NWT RANWORTH BROAD

Jessops
Davey Place,
NR2 1PQ

NWT NEW BUCKENHAM
COMMON

HSBC Bank
London Street,
NR2 1LG

NWT HICKLING BROAD

White Stuff
London Street,
NR2 1LD

NWT UPTON BROAD AND MARSHES

Dipples
Swan Lane,
NR2 1JA

NWT FOXLEY WOOD

Jarrold
Bedford Street,
NR2 1DA

NWT EAST WINCH COMMON

Museum of Norwich
Bridewell Alley,
NR2 1AQ

NWT WAYLAND WOOD

The Book Hive
London Street,
NR2 1HL

NWT CLEY MARSHES

The Forum
Millennium Plain,
NR2 1TF

NWT HOLME DUNES

LUSH
Gentleman's Walk,
NR2 1NA

NWT ROYDON COMMON AND GRIMSTON WARREN

“Dawn in early spring at Holme Dunes is of skylark song and the whetstone call of grey partridge; the shrieking oystercatcher and the three-note redshank on the saltmarsh; inland the warm chomp of cattle in the grass, and the whinny still of northbound wigeon.”