

Volunteer Role Description

Role title
Nature Reserve Guide NWT Cley Marshes
Purpose of your role
To assist visitors in identifying birds and wildlife from the hides and on the reserve and provide information to visitors about the reserve and Norfolk Wildlife Trust.
Type of work you will be involved with <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Helping visitors to enjoy observing wildlife and assisting visitors with wildlife identification, especially birds. • Bird identification - especially waders and waterfowl but also interpreting general wildlife on the reserve and pointing out interesting behaviours such as marsh harrier breeding displays. • Possibly leading guided walks.
Skills and abilities you will be using in your role
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Competent bird identification skills e.g. you must be able to distinguish spotted redshank from redshank, black-tailed godwit from bar-tailed godwit, female pintail from female mallard etc. • Good communication skills • Friendly, outgoing and confident in dealing with visitors of all ages • Knowledge of and enthusiasm for wildlife and conservation
You will be based at
NWT Cley Marshes Visitor Centre The centre is open every day except Christmas Eve and Christmas Day
Times/days we would like you to be available
Flexible but a minimum of one half day a week is required.
Benefits to you
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Development of skills in interpreting wildlife in interesting and informative ways • Volunteering at an internationally important nature reserve, which is one of Britain's best for bird watching • Opportunity to learn/enhance/share local knowledge of wildlife and conservation • Become a valued member of a professional team • Travel expenses (to be agreed in advance with the Visitor Centre Manager)
Your supervisor :
NWT Cley Marshes Visitor Centre Manager
Other key NWT relationships
Visitor Services & Sales Manager, Sales Officer, Cley Community & Education Officer, Visitor Centre Assistants
Notes/Special requirements
This centre hosts frequent school party visits and education trips – so a child friendly approach is required.